

Photo by Wall to Wall Diving

Photo by Nathan Brown

2015 FIELD SURVEY TRIP PROGRAM

Dive Vacations That Count

For the past two decades, REEF volunteer surveyors have compiled the largest fish sighting database in the world, led the way in lionfish invasion intervention, and pioneered research for the preservation of Nassau Grouper populations. REEF Trips are led by marine life experts. Join like-minded divers for an itinerary of diving, seminars, and fun!

GRAND CAYMAN

Wall to Wall Diving / Comfort Suites & Resort

March 14 – March 21, 2015

Studio with Kitchenette $1,413 (double occupancy)

Studio with Kitchenette $2,391 (single occupancy)

- 2 Queen Beds or 1 King Bed -

Led by Jonathan Lavan, REEF Fishinar Instructor and Fish Expert

A great trip for beginners and experienced surveyors alike, and a perfect destination for your non-diving companions. We will be diving with Wall to Wall Diving, an operation with a great reputation among REEF surveyors. REEF Expert and Fishinar Instructor, Jonathan Lavan, will teach daily seminars using many of his own award-winning underwater photographs.

Your package includes 7 nights accommodation at Comfort Suites & Resort in a Studio Room with kitchenette, 5 days of 2 tank diving, transfers to/from Wall to Wall dive shop each day (a short drive), daily hot buffet breakfast, Wi-Fi access, all taxes.

To reserve your space or find out more, email us at trips@REEF.org, or call us at 305-588-5869.

Reef Environmental Education Foundation

Explore. Discover. Make a Difference.

(305)588-5869 trips@REEF.org www.REEF.org/trips

Prices do not include an additional REEF Program fee. All prices are per person based on double occupancy. Single occupancy rates available. Please visit www.REEF.org/trips for further details. Any liabilities for trip interruptions, cancellations, or general travel disputes will be the responsibility of the traveler.