

SUPPORTERS

more than 57,000
members

more than 20 partnerships with foundations, universities,
and government agencies

THE IMPACT OF REEF

REEF ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATION FOUNDATION

REEF
Offices
in Florida, California and Washington

FOUNDED IN 1990

REEF conserves marine ecosystems by educating, enlisting and enabling divers and other marine enthusiasts to become active ocean stewards and citizen scientists.

EDUCATION

92 young adults
participated in REEF's Marine Conservation
Internship Program

102 Fishinars
organized
to educate the public about marine ecosystems

13,692
volunteer divers and snorkelers

385
REEF members on Advanced Assessment Teams

VOLUNTEER FISH SURVEY

185,245
fish surveys completed

11,353
sites around the world

Data on more than 3,400
species recorded

7.8 million
records in the database, creating the world's largest ocean citizen science program

More than 74 scientific publications using REEF
data and programs

303 field stations
providing REEF education programs

INVASIVE LIONFISH

14,832
lionfish collected in REEF derbies

94
lionfish workshops
conducted

GROUPEL MOON

12 years
of conservation research and protection for Nassau Grouper

3 live underwater video chats held in 2014 with more than 330 students from 12 schools

MAKE YOUR IMPACT Donate today to protect marine species worldwide
REEF.org/contribute